

Sponsor a tree: Seville inhabitants take care of the plants that surround them

LOCATION: Seville

DURATION: 1'08"

SUMMARY: From this year, people living in Seville has the opportunity to sponsor a tree in their neighbourhood. They just have to need to apply for it to the City Council so they can plant it. It is the 'Sponsor a tree' initiative, that intends to end up with the empty tree wells of the city. With this project, the City Council intends to plant 92 trees in a year. This initiative isn't just good for the environment, it also rises the opportunities to find shade in the hot months of summer.

VTR:

Antonio has just become the sponsor of this orange tree. It is one of the ninety-two trees that are going to be planted this years in the city centre of Seville thanks to the initiative 'Sponsor a Tree'. A project that with the help of neighbours intends to end up with the empty tree wells of the city.

ANTONIO ALONSO
Neighbour

"We must plant trees in the city centre because they are broken by cars and also die."

AMIDEA AVARRO
Seville's City Council

"Making neighbours tell association where the priorities are, where we have to plant."

The neighbours are the ones that ask their City Council to plant a tree and compromise to take care of it.

AMIDEA AVARRO
Seville's City Council

"We are giving them instructions about when they have to water, when they need to be trimmed."

ANTONIO ALONSO
Neighbour

"Not letting it growing in the wrong direction, making it growing strait."

It is an initiative that takes care of the environment but is also looking for shade, so necessary in the Sevillian summer.

"It is very ht in Seville and the shade is a relief."

PEASANTS

"Is very hot in here and also everything is ugly without trees, it is horrible."

A joint effort with a clear objective...

ANTONIO ALONSO
Neighbour

"That there isn't any missing tree in the city centre."
