

A touristic initiative claims the role of women in the history of Cádiz's villages

LOCATION: ARCOS DE LA FRONTERA, CÁDIZ

DURATION: 1'49"

SUMMARY:

Six mountain villages of Cádiz propose original touristic tours that reveal the importance of the role of women in history. They don't just show monuments but also the story of those forgotten women who lived there. Arcos de la Frontera is the first village where this initiative has started with the support of the Provincial Council of Tourism of Cádiz and the collaboration of the equality service of the provincial government.

VTR:

She is the main character of this touristic tour centered in women. The first one is the Duchess of Arcos de la Frontera, Beatriz Pacheco. Today she is in charge of reminding the role of important women that history has left behind.

TOURIST

"This type of routes should be done more often to make the legacy of women be recognized not just in Arcos but also in other villages."

TOURIST

"We have discovered them through the stories but I didn't know any of them."

TOURIST

"They have only spoken about their husbands and they have been apart from all this."

This is the first of six routes that cover different mountain villages of Cádiz that don't just pay attention to the buildings, but also to the stories of people that has lived among their walls.
