

The first theatre company in Europe composed by deaf-blind comes from Andalusia

LOCATION: Málaga

DURATION: 2'00"

SUMMARY: The theatre company born in Málaga 'Los Sinsentidos' or 'Without Senses' is the first one in Europe composed by deaf-blind people that also has chosen comedy. These days they are preparing their last play, 'Robbery at 11 past 11'. All its components (directors and actors) work selflessly since six years ago.

VTR:

They can't hear or see but they are able to perform a theatre play, a comedy that manages to bring a smile to peoples' faces.

ÓSCAR DE GREGORIO
Artistic director

"They have even told us: this person is deaf-blind? I hadn't realized it."

Because they are the 'Sinsentidos' or 'Without Senses', the first and only theatre company composed by deaf-blind people and exclusively dedicated to comedy.

ÓSCAR DE GREGORIO
Artistic director

"Because the situation of these people is dramatic, painful and tough; so we wanted to give it a cheerful touch."

QUICO
Actor

"I like comedy, musical theatre but dramatic theatre not too much."

He is Quico, one of the actors of this company from Málaga and the one who is next to him is Oscar, the artistic director, who gives the first instructions regarding the new play they are rehearsing.

Ambience: Make an angry face!

They get mad very few times...

JOSÉ MIGUEL
Actor

"The truth is that I like everything from the theatre, jokes...I like everything. We are never serious."

And although for them this is part of their leisure, the truth is that they take it very seriously.

JOSÉ MARÍA
Actor

"It isn't easy, it is something difficult, people here are in a constant fight, daily work, to have more culture as the rest of the people."

This is their third play 'Robbery at 11 past 11', so Quico has already experienced the sensation felt in front of the audience.

QUICO
Actor

"Butterflies in my stomach."

Believing, wanting, creating and growing. That's their motto and as you can see, they always follow it.
