

Art on wheels: an Andalusian takes his customized motorbikes all over the world

LOCATION: Vera (Almería)

DURATION: 2'00"

SUMMARY: Pedro Sabiote, a motorbikes enthusiast from Almería, has been awarded several times for his motorbike designs. In his own house and with his own hands we builds and customize theses motorbikes, creating real works of art that have received several prizes all over the world. In February we will attend to the Spanish Builders Championship after reaching the second place last year.

VTR:

There's no other motorbike like this one, its name is Off Café, and it looks like it was part of the apocalyptic film Mad Max.

"It gets a lot of attention. Everybody saying... the paint is lifted!"

In fact it is one of the innovating techniques of Pedro Sabiote, born in Almería and able to take art to motorbikes from his own home and hands.

"A challenge, mainly a challenge."

A challenge he will face in February in the Spanish Builders Championship, after getting the third place in Portugal. Pedro intends to repeat this success given by this Montesa.

"A motorbike with strength, that why I named it panther. It has taken me three years and more than a thousand working hours."

With it he reached the second place in the last Spanish Championship and has obtained important awards in other international contests. A reward for a whole life dedicated to a hobby he started when he was just sixteen.
