

A pie de cama: a museum takes the shape of a book to bring art to hospitalized children

LOCATION: Granada

LENGTH: 1'38"

SUMMARY: The 'A pie de cama' project aims to bring art and culture to hospitalized children. Through a multi-sensory book, children discover the works of the CajaGranada Museum from their hospital beds.

VTR:

Bringing the art and culture of a museum to the beds of hospitalized children. That's what Irene is doing with the CajaGranada Museum and the children of the oncology unit of the Maternity and Child Hospital, with the help of this multi-sensory book.

Irene Rodríguez
Art therapist

"Making a small museum in the shape of a book, in order to turn it into something intimate. What I like most about this project is bringing the museum to every bed in a personalized way."

Eloísa del Alisal
CajaGranada Museum Manager

"The most important goal is to bring the art of the CajaGranada Museum to the hospital, and offer kids a way to express their creativity and fantasy."

The book has five sections dedicated to Architecture, Nature, Romanticism, Identity and Contemporaneity, including multisensory interpretations of the works, which Irene adapts to the patient's age. The works are also accompanied by fragments of poems.

Eloísa del Alisal
CajaGranada Museum Manager

"A selection of works from the art collection of CajaGranada, including paintings, sculptures, graphic works; which we show in a didactic way."

Irene Rodríguez
Art therapist

"It is a museum made to play, touch, smell, feel... and it also has a poetic side."

The 'A pie de cama' project is an initiative of the CajaGranada Foundation, in collaboration with the Andalusian Government.

Pilar Espejo
Maternity and Child Hospital Manager

"By bringing culture and fun they make their day, but this also accelerates their healing and makes it more comfortable."

Finally, the kids make their own art works, which will be exhibited at the museum.
