

Tourist graffiti: Linares designs a tour to show Belin's urban art

SUMMARY: The artist Miguel Ángel Belinchón, also known as Belin, has designed a tour that includes some of the most important works of this artist that can be found in the city of Linares. With the support of the city council of the city, a map with all these interest points has been edited to be given to the tourists who visit the city. These graffiti have become another tourist attraction of the city.

VTR:

If you walk around Linares you will be able to find Works of art like this one. Or this one. But, what if we want to see more? Where can we find them? From now on when visitors get to the tourism office they will discover a new proposal. A tour around the graffiti of Miguel Ángel Belinchón, an artist from Linares also known as Belin.

AMBIENCE

"His work has been in Linares for years, and the important thing is that now you have a map with all the streets where you can find each one of the works."

Until now visitors just came some of them across but didn't know the location of others. That's why they figured out that a public needed to be guided to these places.

"When people come from abroad they ask me: 'where can I see your graffiti? Where can I go? Because I have seen some and I don't know how to get to others.' They have asked it to me many times; even people from outside Spain have come to Linares to see the graffiti."

With the collaboration of the Linares's City Council, 20 works from around the city have been selected and included in this guide.

"There are different times of my life regarding graffiti in Linares. It is a selection of the best preserved."

This guide is very useful for visitors to get to know the works of this international artist.

TOURISTS

"It is a little easier and you don't have to look for them by yourself, on your own, asking yourself where the graffiti is."

"This way, with the map, you can't get lost. It guides you very well and tells you the exact place where they are."

A tour that can even make visitors know Belin himself, as the facade of his studio is one of the stops.
