

Demipati: the initiative of three entrepreneurs to fill parties with solidarity

LOCATION: Seville

DURATION: 1'33"

SUMMARY: 'Demipati' is the initiative of three girls from Seville to turn friend meetings into solidarity parties. Through the site www.demipati.org they act as intermediaries between people and NGOs so they can choose the project they feel more identified with. They also teach hosts creative formulas to raise funds in their parties.

VTR

A fun barbeque with cold beer and of course some singing. It may seem a regular party but not, it is a solidarity party.

EUGENIO
Host

"It is a chance to be with friends and at the same time to do something for someone."

He is Eugenio, the host and they are the girls of 'Demipati', an altruistic initiative that promotes different parties where fun and social consciousness go together.

LAURA FERNÁNDEZ CARRILLO
'Demipati'

"Demipati" is a platform that promotes any type of event with a solidarity component."

BEATRIZ FERNÁNDEZ CARRILLO
'Demipati'

"It can be a birthday party, a wedding, a company event...."

They act as intermediaries between the host and the NGO through this website. They inform the host about the existing social projects and the formula they can use to raise funds.

MAITE GONZÁLEZ
'Action Against Hunger'

"It is a fundamental help for us, mainly in times like these in which every support and collaboration is important, not only at an economical level but also regarding awareness and support cooperation in the projects we are starting."

The formula chosen by Eugenio is painting a picture and draw it among his friends selling raffle tickets.

GUESTS

"Instead of giving a present you donate money that will be destined to a social project."

"You can help people being happy."

And they do because what has been raised here will be destined to a project of Action Against Hunger that fights child malnutrition. Because 7.000 children die of starvation every day in the world.
