

An app to map the flora at the Alcázar of Seville, guiding visitors through history

LOCATION: Seville

DURATION: 1'29"

SUMMARY: The gardens of the Alcázar of Seville have more than 1,000 years of history. In them, doctors from Al Andalus researched the health effects of plants. Later, botanists experimented here with seeds from the Americas. A new app maps the plants of this famous historical space and transmits information to the user on their origins and history to date.

VTR

The gardens of the Alcázar of Seville are 1,000 years old. Kings, poets and scientists have passed through here, and all have left their mark. These waterlilies are a part of it. These multicoloured roses as well... And the acanthuses that inspired architectural jewels... An app has been developed, a botanical guide which enables us to get to know the plants of the Alcázar gardens, and guide visitors through their stories.

Nomad Garden

"It's an app which is always geolocalised, with information available for wherever you are in the garden, searching for the information around you."

SERGIO RODRÍGUEZ
Nomad Garden

"You can access the plants around you, find out their names, their properties..."

FRANCISCO J. PAZOS
Nomad Garden

"Or you can look for the plants that capture your attention because you already know their name, using the search tool."

SERGIO RODRÍGUEZ
Nomad Garden

"Walking through the gardens following a series of routes, according to the smells, the colours, the origin of the plants..."

It has taken two years to categorize the 187 species currently in the gardens, and map the 21,000 information points that the user can look up. Where does the plant known as Adam's Rib come from?

FRANCISCO J. PAZOS
Nomad Garden

"It's not trying to replace the garden visit, but accompany you on it."

SERGIO RODRÍGUEZ

"Our aim was to showcase the cultural heritage and also the natural heritage that we have here."

The app is free and already available on Android, and soon on iOS. The aim of its creators is to spread throughout Seville...
