

Language exchange with people in your city thanks to an app

LOCATION: Ronda (Málaga)

DURATION: 1'36"

SUMMARY: A mobile app so you can find other people close by and practise languages. That's the main aim of uTandem, the free app that was developed in Ronda by a group of Malagan students. There are already more than 35,000 users around the world.

VTR:

A free mobile app which allows you to find people in your city with whom you can practice languages. That is the main feature that uTandem is providing, a project developed by these students from Ronda, that now has over 35,000 users.

uTandem CEO

"You can find users in your city. There are other apps like this but they don't allow you to directly find people in your city and, more importantly, to find businesses that are linked to services with the language exchanging or language learning."

Mercedes Fernández
uTandem Head
of Communication

"Just joining, we have a list of people that are interested in sharing, and academies that carry out these exchanges where we can go."

The app is available for IOS and Android systems and has users around the world. Using it is very simple.

Mercedes Fernández
uTandem Head of Communication

"Make a profile, say which languages you speak and the ones you want to practise, and so from there, you can find a compatible partner with your search. There's an internal chat on the app through which I can get in contact with that person."

There are more than 1,500 active users every day.

Users

"I've been living abroad for many years and since I got back I've missed practising languages." "Being able to arrange to meet people who are nearby, being able to go to a nearby establishment where you can exchange languages with more people."

And the app is still growing, given that it receives more than 400 downloads every day.
