

English on the theatre stage to make lessons fun

LOCATION: Huétor Tájar (Granada)

DURATION: 1'23"

SUMMARY: They united teaching and theatre, and started to offer shows for schools. One of the goals of the 'En la Luna Teatro' Granadian theatre company is to promote English learning through theatrical shows, performing classical plays such as 'Peter Pan', 'Alice in Wonderland' and 'The Wizard of Oz'.

VTR:

The Granadian theatre company 'En la Luna Teatro' uses this form of art as a tool to teach English. Classic plays are adapted to the age of the audience, starting by infant students

LAURA LÓPEZ
En la Luna Teatro

"They aren't supported by text because children can't read yet, it is very visual. But when we perform for elementary students there is a supporting text where they can follow the play both in English and Spanish. And for secondary school students, we remove the text again."

Background

"Have you lost your shadow?". "Yes".

Alice in Wonderland, the Wizard of Oz or Peter Pan are some of the shows that try bring some fun to English lessons.

JOSÉ ADRIÁN ZAMORANO
En la Luna Teatro

"This way they don't simply learn, we make them absorb it so it becomes a part of them."

On the stage, music also becomes another learning tool.

LAURA LÓPEZ
En la Luna Teatro

"The musical part is very important because children learn a lot through music."

"They remember the vocabulary they have heard here later, and I am positive that these days we are going to hear it in the classes."

AUDIENCE

"The truth is that it is suitable way to improve the English level of students."

In addition, this company offers teachers didactic material to work in the classroom before showtime.

For more information or support please email info@andalusianstories.com